Prizes

Ribbons 1st – 6th for each trial. Ribbons and prizes for overall winners in each division (combining points earned in all trials).

Note:

All classes will be run as Open classes unless there are sufficient entries to justify splitting into divisions. A class will be split into Open/Amateur/Youth divisions provided there will still be at least three or more entries in each of the split classes. In the case of a split, ribbons will be awarded to each of the split classes.

Option at Rated show for those NEW to the Sport: We offer riders the opportunity to participate in this event as "H/C". H/C Riders can have a coach, on foot, with them in the competition arena throughout their rides. The coach is available to assist both verbally (providing instructions/suggestions) and physically (assisting with the gate, etc.) to help ensure that both horse and rider have a positive experience with the sport. H/C riders are participating for schooling purposes only (hors concours); they are not competing for awards/points. *Just note on entry form H/C with Level and pay that levels fee accordingly. No Non-member fee is required for H/C riders.

RELEASE, HOLD HARMLESS, AND INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENT

I, the undersigned (Releasor), on my behalf and on the behalf of my heirs, assigns, and successors in interest, and on behalf of my minor child(ren), or those persons or individuals for whom I am responsible acknowledge and understand the following:

- The inherent risks involved in riding, driving, and working around horses, and those risks listed in Florida Statutes § 773.01(6) (2012)
- The entities described above, including Southeast Baroque Horse Shows LLC. and any sponsors, property owners, or additional insureds, and or equine professionals associated with the above described events (collectively described as "Sponsors") will not be held responsible for any injury, death, damage, or loss to or by animals or equipment, including without limitation equines, canines, carriages, equipment use, for the care, or use of the animals or equines. This includes, but is not limited to damage by fire, theft, animal, human and/or equipment collision, escape and acts of God.
- In consideration for the privilege of participating in activities related with the activities located on or related to the Sponsors' property, equipment, equines, or animals, the undersigned Releasors expressly agree to assume the risk for any and all injury, loss or damage and agree to release, hold harmless, and indemnify Sponsors, together with all their agents/employees from any and all claims of injury, loss, damage or death caused by, resulting from or in any way related to the inherent risks of equine activities.
- Releasors agree that all farrier, veterinarian and medical expenses, including emergency care treatment are the sole responsibility of the owner of the animals on behalf of whom such services are rendered.
- Releasors expressly covenant not to sue or make claim against Sponsors, their heirs, successors, assigns, agents, servants or employees for any injury, loss, damage or death caused by, resulting from, or in any way related to any of the inherent risks of equine activities.
- Should any individual provision of this release agreement be declared null, void and unenforceable, all other provisions shall be in full force and effect. In the event of any claim or litigation arising out of this agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to attorney's fees and costs. This is a legally binding agreement and each party has the right to seek and obtain the opinion of separate counsel before executing this document.

I certify that I have read this release before signing and I agree to and am responsible for abiding by the safety rules:
